SYNOPSIS & SPEAKER PROFILE

Ms. Ticy Veluvellel Thomas
Research Analyst, Centre for Maritime Studies, National University of Singapore

Presentation Topic: Understanding Ship Sale & Purchase & Its Complexities

The first speaker, Ms Ticy Veluvellel Thomas, Research Analyst, Centre for Maritime Studies, National University of Singapore will share an overview of the common practices in the ship asset market such as what do people look out for when they purchase and sell vessels, and the details involved in the sale & purchase process.

From the checklist of the various key determinants that would affect the decision-making process of the ship buyers and sellers, Ticy will explain some of these issues in-depth and give participants a better understanding of how the complex ship sale & purchase process is documented from a legal perspective. She will also share some of the key highlights of the newly launched Singapore Ship Sale Form (SSF) and use real-life case studies to give participants a better understanding of the workings of a ship sale transaction and the potential for costly disputes.

Presenter: Ticy Veluvellel Thomas
Research Analyst, Centre for Maritime Studies, National University of Singapore

Ms Ticy V. Thomas graduated from the University of Kerala, India with a Bachelor of Law degree (First Class) in 2002. She was admitted to the Bar Council of India in the same year. In 2003, she went on to pursue her post-graduate research degree in Public International Law at the Centre for International Legal Studies, School of International Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, India and specialised in International Law of the Sea. She graduated with a Masters of Philosophy – International Law in 2005.

Ticy is currently based in Singapore as a research analyst at the Centre for Maritime Studies, National University of Singapore (November 2007 to present). She has undertaken the consultancy project of the Singapore Ship Sale Form and has been working closely with the Singapore Maritime Foundation and the key maritime stakeholders to bring the form to fruition. She has also conducted independent research on contemporary subjects of international and national law and published research papers.

Prior to this, she worked as the Legal Associate of the National Maritime Foundation, New Delhi and worked with the officers in the Indian Navy on issues pertaining to legal documentation and contracts. As a student, she had also worked with the International Tribunal for Law of the Sea, Germany as a legal intern and served the Regional Delegation of the ICRC in South Asia, India as a project intern. Mr Lee Wai Pong
Executive Director
Singapore Chamber of Maritime Arbitration (SCMA)

Presentation Topic: Arbitration – an overview of its process and application to the maritime community. Introduction into workings of SCMA

The second speaker, Mr Lee Wai Pong, Executive Director of SCMA will take the audience through basic models of dispute resolution before elaborating on the actual arbitration process. He will then illustrate how it is uniquely applied order to respond to the needs, cultures and customs of the maritime industry and what distinguishes maritime arbitration from main stream arbitration. He will also explore in detail with the audience, how Singapore with its unique blend of culture, skilled population and infrastructure positions itself as a natural centre for dispute resolution for the Asia Pacific.

Wai Pong will finally take the audience through the arbitration facilities available in Singapore and how SCMA intends to extend its outreach to the less obvious sectors of the maritime community and how it plans to strengthen its role as the “go-to” place for contracting parties seeking a fair and just resolution to their contractual disputes.

Presenter: Lee Wai Pong, Executive Director, Singapore Chamber of Maritime Arbitration (SCMA)

Mr Lee Wai Pong is the Executive Director of the Singapore Chamber of Maritime Arbitration (SMCA). SCMA’s key mandate is to provide a framework for maritime arbitration which is responsive to the needs of the maritime community and to promote Singapore as the centre for maritime arbitration.

Wai Pong is a Master Mariner, a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers and a retired Commanding Officer (Reservist) from the Republic of Singapore Navy. Wai Pong has over 35 years of shipping experience and has extensive experience in joint ventures, chartering shipbroking, shipping organisations and shipping IT. Prior to his appointment as the Executive Director of SCMA, Wai Pong served as a senior manager at Pacific Carriers Ltd and is in charge of the handy size fleet. He has also served past chairman/vice chairman of the Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers (Singapore Branch) for many years. Wai Pong also conducts lectures on ship broking and ship chartering at the Singapore Shipping Association and has spoken widely on the subject of shipping at local and overseas seminars and conferences.
