

SPEAKERS BIO-DATA

Mr. Lam Yen Chin
Regional Commercial Manager (East Asia)
Germanischer Lloyd
Oct 1999 – current 2007

Mr. Lam Yen Chin graduated in Naval Architecture from University of Hamburg, Germany in 1981.

From 1981 to 1989, he held various technical and operational appointments in the Singapore Navy. In 1988, he was based in Germany to supervise the construction of Singapore's first missile corvette.

Between 1989 to 1992 he served in the Singapore Economic Development Board and was Centre Director Washington DC before moving to National Science and Technology Board (NSTB) as Head International Affairs.

In 1997, he joined Singapore Technologies Marine as Vice President (Marketing). Since October 1999, he is the Regional Commercial Manager with Germanischer Lloyd with responsibility for East Asia.

He also obtained a Master of Science (Industrial Engineering) from National University of Singapore in 1986 and an executive MBA from The State University of New Jersey in 1998.

Mr. Lam Khing Siew
Senior Surveyor & Station Manager (Korea & GZ)
Germanischer Lloyd
Oct 1995 – current 2007

Mr. Lam Khing Siew graduated from University of Glasgow in Scotland with a BSc. (Hons) degree in Naval Architecture and Ocean Engineering in 1986.

From 1986 to 1995, he held appointment as a naval architect in the Singapore Navy, served as owner's newbuilding inspector for Neptune Orient Lines in Japan and as a ship repair manager in Sembawang Shipyard before joining Germanischer Lloyd in 1995.

In Germanischer Lloyd, in addition to his primary role as a senior surveyor, he had also been appointed as Station Manager in Daewoo (Korea) and Guangzhou (China) in charge of newbuilding activities.

Before the Division Office relocated to China in 2005, he was the Technical Manager for East Asia. He is also a qualified auditor for ISM and ISPS.

For more information on Germanischer Lloyd, log into www.gi-group.com

